

Limerick Education Centre

Your Probationary Year

This course is aimed at ensuring that newly qualified teachers will become confident about their responsibilities during their probationary year.

The course will be facilitated by Deirdre Lyddy, Divisional Inspector, who has recently retired from the Department of Education and Science.

Important themes to be dealt with in this course include how to ensure high quality

Teaching and learning, Planning Assessment

Classroom Organisation and Class Management.

Venue: Limerick Education Centre, Time: 18:00 to 21:00

Dates: Tuesday 29th September, Tuesday 6th October,

Tuesday 13th October and Tuesday 20th October

The teaching of curricular areas will also be developed through talk and discussion, examination of exemplars and the use of workshops. The topics underpinning the practical workshop sessions will be drawn from the primary curriculum.

Deirdre has 30 years' experience of probating teachers. She will draw upon this experience in advising on inspectors' expectations and on communicating with your inspector.

It is important to note that the course will not be a substitute for attendance at other very important upcoming events for newly qualified teachers, such as the information sessions given by the Department of Education Inspectorate and the National Pilot Project on Teacher Induction.
